CONSTRUCTION NEWS RELEASE LANE REDUCTION I-57 WILLIAMSON COUNTY

The Illinois Department of Transportation would like to alert motorists traveling Interstate 57 south of Marion to the Johnson County line.

Beginning Monday November 2, 2015 Interstate 57 South Bound will be reduced to one lane to perform pavement patching. This work will start at 7:00pm and continue through 7:00am the following morning. This work will take approximately one week to complete. Once completed, work will begin in the north bound direction. This will also take one week to complete. This work will be performed at night and minor delays are expected. Motorists should be aware of construction equipment and workers near the open lane of traffic.

Message boards, signs and other traffic control devices will be in place to direct motorists.

Please slow down and use extreme caution while driving through all work zones.
